The Hustler's Struggle: My Journey to Free Ads

Let me take you back to when I was running a small import business, selling shoes. I was advertising everywhere: Facebook, Instagram, you name it. But the money I was spending on ads was eating into my profit like a hungry lion. One day, my friend Sade, who always has the inside gist, told me, “Why are you spending all that money on ads? Haven't you heard about WhatsApp TV? Free advert ooo!”

I thought she was just playing. But then she introduced me to 7hubent Tech, a WhatsApp TV platform that gives small businesses a chance to advertise for free and reach a massive audience across Nigeria. My people, I started with a little faith, and in less than a week, my business started getting the type of attention I had never seen before! Orders started coming in from Lagos to Kano—shoes were moving faster than the Lagos danfo bus! Now, every time someone asks me about advertising, I tell them straight: “Omo, if you're not using 7hubent Tech for free ads, you're missing out big time!”
